

A K Shiva Kumar (Shiv), a New Delhi based development economist, policy advisor, and evaluator, has over the past 40 years, taught economics, undertaken evaluations, conducted research and policy analysis, worked closely with governments, international agencies, and civil society organisations to advocate for changes in public policy and legislation. Shiv teaches economics and public policy as a visiting faculty member at Ashoka University, the Indian School of Business, and Harvard's Kennedy School of Government.

Shiv is a Board Member of the Global Partnership to End Violence against Children, Co-Chair of Know in Violence in Childhood, and a member of the Leadership Councils of both the International Center for Research on Women (ICRW) and Global Women's Institute, The George Washington University, Washington DC. He is President of the Sanskriti Foundation and serves on the Boards of Centre for Science and Environment, and Institute for Rural Management, Anand.

Over the years, Shiv has served as Director of the International Centre for Human Development and as a member until 2014 of the Government of India's National Advisory Council. He has been an active contributor to global and national Human Development Reports. He has served as a senior policy adviser to UNICEF India (1992-2017).

Shiv has done his Masters in Economics from Bangalore University and Post-Graduate Diploma in Management from the Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad. He also completed his Masters in Public Administration and Ph.D. in Political Economy and Government, both from Harvard University.

He teaches the course on Social Policy - Design, Implementation and Effectiveness in Advanced Management Programme in Public Policy.