

K Jayshankar

A Certified Management Consultant (CMC) with over 25 years experience in industry, K Jayshankar specializes in strategic planning, leadership development, change management, and empowering learning throughout organisations. He is the Managing Director of Empowered Learning Systems Private Limited. During this period, he has also been an Executive Coach for senior business managers.

Jayshankar has shared his expertise outside the corporate world as well. As a regular faculty member of various management schools at Mumbai & Pune including the Tata Management Training Centre and the Maharashtra Government's Pune based Administrative Staff College (YASHADA); as a member of professional bodies, including the Strategic Management Society (SMS), the American Society of Training and Development (ASTD) and Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM); and as a speaker at international conferences in Japan, USA, Panama, Netherlands, Egypt & South Africa.

Jayshankar is a licensed KEPNER and FOURIE Programme Leader in Problem Solving, Decision Making and FreeZone Innovation Thinking. Jayshankar has pursued his graduation from the Madras Christian College (majoring in economics with mathematics and statistics as additional subjects), a post-graduation from the reputed Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai (specializing in Personnel Management and Industrial Relations).