

Mukul Singhal

Mukul Singhal works with Canaan Partners - an early to mid stage venture capital firm. He supports the team's investments in India by helping to identify and analyze innovative opportunities in IT/ITES, Internet, Mobile & Telecom, Financial Services, Education and Clean Tech. He has worked on closing Canaan's investment in iYogi, UnitedLex and Chakpak Media. He also serves as a board observer at Chakpak Media. Singhal is well plugged in the entrepreneurial ecosystem of the country through various platforms and incubation centres. He frequently works with companies in defining their business model and funding strategy. Apart from Canaan, he is also an advisor to an early stage company - Aspiring Minds.

Prior to joining Canaan, Singhal worked with Gujarat Venture Finance, where he pursued investments in technology and clean tech. He also has operational experience at technology companies like Sapient and Infosys. Singhal received a B. Tech in mechanical engineering from Indian Institute of Technology Kanpur and an MBA in analytical finance from the Indian School of Business Hyderabad. He is a TiE Charter member.