

Rahul Patwardhan

Rahul Patwardhan is the Vice Chairman and Managing Director of IndiaCo Ventures Limited. Patwardhan has over 14 years of experience in venture capital investing, general management and technology product management. He has personally invested, mentored and advised several mid-sized and large corporations. He has an extensive international experience, and expertise in manufacturing, engineering, and software.

Patwardhan is a former member of the Advisory Committee for the Department of Science and Technology (STEP) and Chairman of the Incubation Committee of the NIF (National Innovation Foundation) of India. He has been awarded by the Indian Economic Development Association (IEDRA) for "Outstanding Contributions to National Development". Patwardhan holds a Masters in Business Management and a Mechanical Engineering Degree from Pune University.