The Indian School of Business in Hyderabad has been ranked among the top 20 business institutes of the world.

According to UK's Financial Times newspaper, the ISB, which was founded in 1999 by a group of Fortune 500 entrepreneurs and the Andhra Pradesh government is ranked number 20 B-school in its top 100 list.

ISB offers courses in collaboration with the top B-schools of the world namely London Business School, Kellogs School of Management and Wharton.

Surprisingly, none of the elite 7 IIMs have made it to the coveted list.
