

THE TIMES OF INDIA

Accenture joins hands with ISB

Accenture has joined hands with the Indian School of Business (ISB) to launch the Accenture Management Development Academy, an online, classroom and on-the-job training programme designed to develop and nurture leaders from Accentures mid-level management in India. The academy is a unique and innovative career-development opportunity for Accenture employees. It is designed to help distil best practices from academia, industry and also bring additional focus to the critical delivery-management skills of Accenture professionals focused on providing systems integration, technology consulting and outsourcing services. TNN