

Indian School of Business
Positions in Economic & Public Policy Area

The Indian School of Business (ISB) is an independent, research-driven business school with campuses located in Hyderabad and Mohali, India. It is among the top-ranked Asian B-Schools and has a global ranking of 39 in the most recent FT rankings.

ISB invites applications for full-time tenure-track and tenured faculty positions in the Economics and Public Policy Area.

Appointments start in the 2024-2025 academic year. ISB values diversity among its faculty and is committed to building a diverse intellectual community. We strongly encourage women candidates to apply.

Applicants must have a Ph.D. in a relevant field, have excellent research and teaching skills, and demonstrate the ability to produce scholarly work at the highest level. Applicants for senior appointments should have published extensively in top-tier refereed journals and have a proven track record of successfully mentoring junior faculty.

ISB has a tenure system similar to the top schools in the United States and is an equal opportunity employer. The compensation and teaching loads are competitive. The research support includes excellent infrastructure, research funding and research assistants which compare favorably with those at the best business schools in the United States and Europe.

Interested candidates are requested to send their CV, job-market paper, and other relevant application materials to EPP_recruiting@isb.edu, with a copy to Shilpa Aggarwal at shilpa_aggarwal@isb.edu. Please also arrange for three letters of reference to be sent to the same email ids.

Deadline: We will accept applications until the positions are filled. However, to receive full consideration, candidates should send the complete application packet by November 26, 2023.

Virtual interviews with short-listed candidates will be scheduled in December 2023.
