

Indian School of Business
Faculty Positions in Operations Management Area- Academic Year 2021-22

The Indian School of Business (ISB) invites applications for full-time tenure-track and clinical faculty positions in the area of Operations Management at all levels – Assistant and Associate (tenure track and clinical), Associate and Full Professor (tenured and clinical) for appointments in the 2021-22 academic year. Applicants must have a PhD from a reputed institution, have excellent research and teaching skills, demonstrate ability to produce scholarly work at the highest level, as well as demonstrate the capability to become an outstanding teacher. Applicants for senior appointments should have published extensively in top-tier refereed journals and have a proven track record of successfully mentoring junior faculty. As an institution aspiring to be counted among the top 10 in the world, ISB offers a unique opportunity for its senior faculty members to exert considerable influence over the culture and ethos of the school.

The ISB is a not for profit, independent, research-driven, global business school with two campuses located in Hyderabad and Mohali, India. A collaborative effort of eminent business leaders, entrepreneurs, and academicians from around the world laid the foundation for the school.

The ISB launched its one year Post Graduate Programme in Management (PGP), equivalent to the two-year MBA Courses offered by premier Business Schools in India, in 2001. In addition to the PGP, ISB also offers postgraduate programmes in management for working professionals (PGPpro), senior executives (PGPMAX) and next generation family business owners (PGP MFAB). The School also launched a doctoral programme, the Fellow Programme in Management (FPM), in 2011 and a doctoral equivalent programme for senior executives (EFPM) in 2018. The ISB is one of the youngest schools to have consistently been ranked among the top business schools globally by the Financial Times Global MBA rankings since 2008.

The ISB has a unique portfolio faculty model which accommodates a mix of accomplished resident faculty who have graduated from the best universities across the world and have published in leading academic journals in their respective fields, and visiting faculty from our associate schools, namely the Wharton School, the Kellogg School of Management, the London Business School, and MIT Sloan School of Management, as well as other leading business schools. Senior faculty members from ISB and our associate schools are designated as Area Leaders. They play a key role in the academic programmes and research at ISB. In consultation with the resident faculty, they actively engage in formulating the curriculum, attracting the best faculty to the school, mentoring junior faculty, and providing direction to research in the relevant subject areas. The school also provides a vibrant research environment that attracts, supports and benefits from the visiting scholars it hosts every year.

The ISB has a tenure system similar to the top schools in the United States. The ISB is an equal opportunity employer, values gender diversity among its faculty, is committed to building a diverse intellectual community, and strongly encourages applications from women. The research support includes excellent infrastructure, research funding, and research assistance, which compare favorably with those at the best business schools in the United States and Europe. Ideally, the candidates should plan to join by May 2021 (negotiable). Interested candidates are requested to send their CV, job market paper, and other working papers to om\_recruiting@isb.edu with a copy to Professor Vishwakant Malladi - vishwakant\_malladi@isb.edu by October 1, 2020. Interested candidates are also requested to arrange for three reference letters to be sent to the above email address by October 1, 2020.
